THE WAY TO THE ALTAR.—MATRIMONY MAD?

easy or, how to win a lover.

Love rules the eamp, the court, the grove.

For love is Heaven, and Heaven is love."

So sang the bard yet thousands pine.

For love—of life the light divine—

Who, did they know some gentle charm,

The learts of hose they love to warm,

Might live, might die, in biles supreme,

Possessing all of which they dream.

The road to wedlock would you know,

Delay not, but to Roundout go.

Time fies, and from his glomny wings

A shadow falls on living things;

Then seize the moments as they pass,

Ere falls the last sands through the glass

At least the present is your own,

While all the future is unknown.

A happy marriage man or maid

May now secure by Roundouth aid.

Prefessor ROUN DOUT, of New York, formerly of Sweden where he has been the means of bringing about thousands of happy marriages, will sent to asy address, on receipt of onlance.
